 2. bought their Dongle, Laptop or Modem via Our telesales team or via Our website and used them as described below; or

3. Statutory rights

1. The policies set out in this Returns Policy section will not affect any of the Customer's statutory rights.
2. For more information on statutory rights, a Customer should contact any local authority Trading Standards Department or Citizens Advice Bureau.

4. Manufacturer's warranty

1. The manufacturer of the Phone, Dongle or Modem will have provided the Customer with a warranty against defects in materials and workmanship for a period of at least 12 months from purchase. Further details of the manufacturer's warranty can be found in Your Dongle, Phone or Modem Box. This warranty is in addition to the Customer's statutory rights.
2. We only act as the manufacturer's agent for the purposes of processing any warranty claims. We are not the manufacturer of the Phone, Dongle or Modem and the manufacturer is the company referred to in the manufacturer's warranty documentation.
3. A Customer must notify Our Customer Services if a Customer wishes to make a warranty claim against the manufacturer.
4. For details of any manufacturer's warranty given in respect of a Laptop, a Customer will need to refer to the details of the manufacturer's warranty which may be included in the Laptop box. A Customer should also refer to the information in the manufacturer's warranty or materials for details of how to make a claim under the manufacturer's warranty in respect of a Laptop.

5. Products damaged on arrival

1. If a Customer discovers that a Phone, Dongle, Laptop and/or Modem is visibly damaged on arrival, the Customer should either write on the delivery note that the packaging is damaged, or refuse to accept the delivery. The Customer should also contact Us within 7 calendar days with details of the damage. This will help Us considerably in raising the matter with our appointed courier. Once the damaged goods have been received back into our warehouse, then we will repair them or replace them.

6. Products not as ordered

1. If the Customer receives goods from Us that differ from what the Customer has ordered, then We strongly recommend that the Customer notifies Us as soon as possible by phone and by email to our customer services team.
